

6516206888.txt

I believe that prohibiting satellite radio from broadcasting weather and traffic reports is very shortsighted. Competition is good for everyone. If it was not for intense competition, I fear that we would still be living in the stone age. Local stations must either compete and provide the listener with quality information, minus the annoying commercials, or go out of business. Do not restrict my ability to make a choice.